Dear papa, —

I received your letter & check yesterday morning, but have not had time to write you since. Thank you very, very much for it, & I'll try not to get into any difficulties in my money affairs. I have not deposited it yet, as we've had meetings both afternoons, such as class & Student Government, but I shall try to go down to-morrow morning. I hope mamma is feeling better, & that her rheumatism is gone by this time, though I'm afraid it isn't. I think Thursday ~~at~~ night about quarter-past nine will be a good time for you to telephone to me, if you want to, papa, dear. Then, as to your other questions about my hile-proof stockings, - they came day before yesterday. I haven't worn them yet, but I'm very glad to get them.

I was very much pleased yesterday to receive an invitation to stay for Commencement this year. Grace Allen, (Margery will remember her as the little Quakeress) asked me if I would stay & help ~~trout~~ around her relatives. Of course I am very glad to, for it means that I'll get a chance to go to everything except the actual Commencement exercises, & it will be such fun. Besides, it's a good thing to learn the ropes this year, so that I'll know just how to act next year.

I wore my new hat again to-day to the Good Friday service which Bishop Lawrence conducted. Tell mother I am quite crazy about it. With ever so much love & thanks for the nice letters & check, I am your loving daughter,

Ruby.
